

THIS SATURDAY:
Channel 2's Khambrel Marshall to emcee A Day of Remembrance

A Day of Remembrance: A Black History Month Tribute to the Sugar Land 95, takes place 10 a.m., Saturday, February 19, at Fluor Corporation in Sugar Land.

Khambrel Marshall, meteorologist and host of KPRC-TV's Houston Newsmakers, will serve as emcee.

The event marks the fourth anniversary to the day of the discovery of the Sugar Land 95.

It is sponsored by the Society of Justice & Equality for the People of Sugar Land (S.O.J.E.S.), a Sugar Land non-profit organization comprised of residents of Fort Bend County.

A special community engagement workshop takes place from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. Led by MASS Design Group, the workshop will seek input on memorializing the Sugar Land 95.

The keynote speaker at S.O.J.E.S.'s A Day of Remembrance will be Matthew J. Mancini, Ph.D., author of the book One Dies, Get Another:

Convict Leasing in the American South: 1866-1928. Dr. Mancini will focus on convict leasing as one of the most exploitative labor systems in American history.

Noted archaeologist Reign Clark, Archaeological Project Manager and the first author of the final report on the Sugar Land 95, Back to Bondage: Forced Labor in Post Reconstruction Era Texas, also will speak at the gathering via Zoom.

Dr. Christie Whitbeck, FBISD superintendent, also is a guest speaker.

The event is free and open to all. Masks are required for attendance.
